“Our skin is the mirror that reveals the status of our physical and mental well being.”

~Dr. Christine Rodgers
“As a plastic surgeon for over 20 years, I have had the pleasure of meeting many inspirational women. Some of these women have been my patients and colleagues. Others I befriended when I laced up my dancing shoes to help heal my body and spirit during my battle with breast cancer. These extraordinary women inspired me to develop EnPointe Skin Solutions™, a luxurious skin care line that I formulated to address the skin concerns of women.”

Dr. Christine Rodgers
EnPointe Skin Solutions is formulated with natural botanicals, active extracts and a proprietary anti-aging complex to nurture and rejuvenate stressed skin.

These help fight against environmental damage, hormonal effects and premature aging of the skin.

The result: beautiful, balanced skin with a natural, healthy glow.
BIO-ENERGY COMPLEX
Dr. Rodgers’ advanced proprietary Bio-Energy Complex™ incorporates a powerful and unique blend of special anti-inflammatories, antioxidants, energizers, and cell stabilizers that restore, revitalize and replenish the skin — while protecting skin from environmental damage, hormonal effects and premature aging.

Special botanicals and newly formulated ingredients work together to provide strength and balance for a youthful, vibrant appearance.
WELLNESS
“You no longer have to choose between receiving the benefits of technologically advanced skin care and defending your skin from harsh, harmful ingredients. I only use ingredients that are clinically proven to repair the visible effects of stress on the skin, without potentially harmful side-effects. My products DO NOT contain parabens, phthalates, phyto-estrogens, soy, hydroquinone, or growth factors.”

Dr. Christine Rodgers
“Our skin is our largest organ, and quite often we forget to nourish and protect it. Patients who visit me are often in search of a solution to undo years of skin stress. Having studied the skin for years and working with countless patients, I understand this complex organ very well. As a plastic surgeon, it is my job to focus on not just the skin’s surface, but also its composition. With this knowledge, I have formulated my skin care line to respond to skin stressors that contribute to leading skin concerns such as fine lines, skin pigmentation, redness and irritation. I have personally experienced many of these — as have my friends, who helped shape the formulations for EnPointe Skin Solutions.”
